Article 5

Examination Commission

1. The examining Commission, appointed by the Director of the National Institute of Optics, is composed according to the provisions of articles 5 and 7 of the "Regulations concerning the recruitment of personnel with fixed-term employment contracts" of 2005, as well as by resolution no. 142/2021, and in particular by three effective members, of which at least one external, and by two substitute members; the role of Chairman of the commission is assigned to the external member.

2. The act of appointment is published on the CNR website page: at the addresses <https://www.urp.cnr.it/> e <https://selezionionline.cnr.it>.

3. Any changes on the legal status that occur after the appointment do not affect the quality of commissioner.

4. The Commission shall conclude the procedure within three months of the date of the first meeting. With his own provision, the Director to whom reference is made in paragraph 1 may extend the aforementioned term only once and for no more than two months. Non-compliance with this deadline must be collectively justified by the Examination Commission with a reasoned report to be forwarded to the Director himself.

Article 6 Curricula – Self declarations

1. Pursuant to article 15 of Law 12 November 2011 No. 183, it is forbidden to exhibit to public administrations and private managers of public services, certificates concerning personal statuses and facts and personal qualities, which must always be made by personal sworn declarations or declarations in lieu of affidavits pursuant to articles 46 and 47 of the Decree of the President of the Republic 28 December 2000 No. 445.

2. Candidates must attach to the application form the curriculum vitae et studiorum and the declarations to which reference is made in paragraph 4 below.

3. It is the responsibility of the candidate to include in the curriculum all the information necessary for the evaluation of qualifications, such as for example: references of the document (date, identification number if present in the document), natural or legal person who issued the document, as well as the curriculum vitae itself with useful information for evaluation purposes, such as: nature and duration of the assignment and / or activity carried out, functions, experience gained, role played by the candidate, etc.

Any information included in the curriculum without the elements useful for evaluation will not be taken into consideration by the Commission.

4. The candidate must attach the form relating to personal sworn declarations or declarations in lieu of affidavits, to which reference is made in the aforementioned legislation, with a photocopy of a valid identification document with legible signature, as indicated in article 4 of the announcement.

5. The personal sworn declarations foreseen for Italian citizens apply also to citizens of the European Union. People who are not citizens of the European Union can use the personal sworn declarations only in those cases in which there is the necessity of proving personal statuses, facts and qualities that can be certified or are certifiable by Italian public or private entities, that is to say in those cases where the production of the same declarations takes place in application of international conventions between Italy and the country of origin of the declarant.

6. The Administration carries out appropriate checks on the veracity of the content of the personal sworn declarations pursuant to article 71 of the Decree of the President of the Republic No. 445/2000.

Article 7 Exclusion

1. The following are reasons for official exclusion::

- a) the submission of the application and related attachments in ways other than those indicated in the art. 3;
- b) the lack of the requirements referred to in the art. 2 from letter a) to letter f);

2. Candidates not excluded are still admitted to the selection procedure with reservations.

3. The person in charge of the procedure may order at any time the exclusion from the selection for lack of the prescribed requirements. If the reasons for the exclusion are ascertained after the completion of the selection procedure, the aforementioned person in charge of the procedure orders the forfeiture of any right resulting from participation in the procedure itself; the withdrawal of candidates will also be ordered if one of the declarations provided in the application for participation in the selection or the declarations made pursuant to the Decree of the President of the Republic No.445/2000 is not true.

Article 8 Titles and interview

1. The Commission first adopts the evaluation criteria before having read the documentation submitted by the candidates.

2. For the evaluation of the qualifications and the interview, the examining commission has a total of 90 points, divided as follows:

- a) titles 30 points;
- b) interview 60 points.

Candidates who have obtained a score of no less than 21/30 in the examination of qualifications are admitted to the interview.

3. The notice of call for the interview, with the indication of the score obtained in the evaluation of qualifications, is given to admitted candidates, at least fifteen days before the day in which they must take it, to the candidate's PEC address; the CNR assumes no responsibility for any network connection disruptions.

4. Candidates must present themselves with a valid identification document.

The interview, aimed at verifying the possession of the aptitude and professional requisites required in relation to the position to be filled, will focus on the professional activities and/or experiences referred to in art. 2 lett. g), as well as on the knowledge referred to in art. 2 lett. i).

5. To pass the interview, the candidate must obtain a score of no less than 42/60 and demonstrate adequate knowledge of the English language and basic information technology.

foreign candidates must also demonstrate adequate knowledge of the Italian language;

6. At the end of the session relating to the interview, the Examining Commission draws up a list of candidates with indication of the vote obtained by each one in this test, a list which, signed by the President and the Secretary of the Commission, is posted on the same day at the register of the exam site.

7. The Administration reserves the right to carry out the oral test in videoconference, through the use of IT and digital tools, guaranteeing in any case the adoption of technical solutions that ensure its publicity, the identification of the participants, as well as the security of the telecommunications and their traceability; any detailed indications regarding the conduct of the test electronically will be published on the institutional website of the CNR and on the online selection platform and these will be communicated individually to the candidates.

Article 9
